

agencies upon whose lands you work. This subpermit does not grant the right of trespass. Such permission must be obtained from private landowners or the land management agency.

- L. Any threatened or endangered species that is accidentally killed (taken) while conducting activities authorized by this subpermit must be reported within 24 hours to both the Resident Agent in Charge, Law Enforcement, P.O. Box 113, Casper, Wyoming 82602, telephone 307-261-6365 and the Recovery Coordinator (see address above). Species and/or parts of species that are taken remain the property of the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service. If the disposal of species is not identified in the above conditions, contact the Recovery Coordinator (see address above) and the Permit Coordinator, telephone 303-236-4256, for the final determination on disposition of any threatened or endangered species taken during authorized activities.
- M. Gray wolves may not be sold, donated, or transferred without prior authorization from the Field Supervisor (see address above).
- N. If you wish to continue work with threatened or endangered species after expiration of this subpermit, your request for renewal of your subpermit must be received by the Permit Coordinator, Ecological Services, P.O. Box 25486, Denver Federal Center, Denver, Colorado 80225, telephone 303-236-4256, on or before March 1, 2010. Meeting this requirement allows you to continue authorized activities until your renewal application is acted upon. If this requirement is not met, this subpermit becomes invalid on the date of expiration. Any new activities or changes in activities with threatened or endangered species will require that your subpermit be amended. You are not authorized to conduct any new activities or to change any permitted activities until you have requested and have received a new or an amended subpermit.
- O. Annual reports of all activities conducted under the authority of this subpermit must be submitted to the Recovery Coordinator (see address above) by December 31 annually. Failure to submit annual reports will invalidate this subpermit. Your reports should include complete accounts of all activities conducted under this subpermit. A renewal request will not be processed until the annual reports are received. Please reference subpermit number TE-105504 when submitting annual reports or other correspondence regarding this subpermit.
